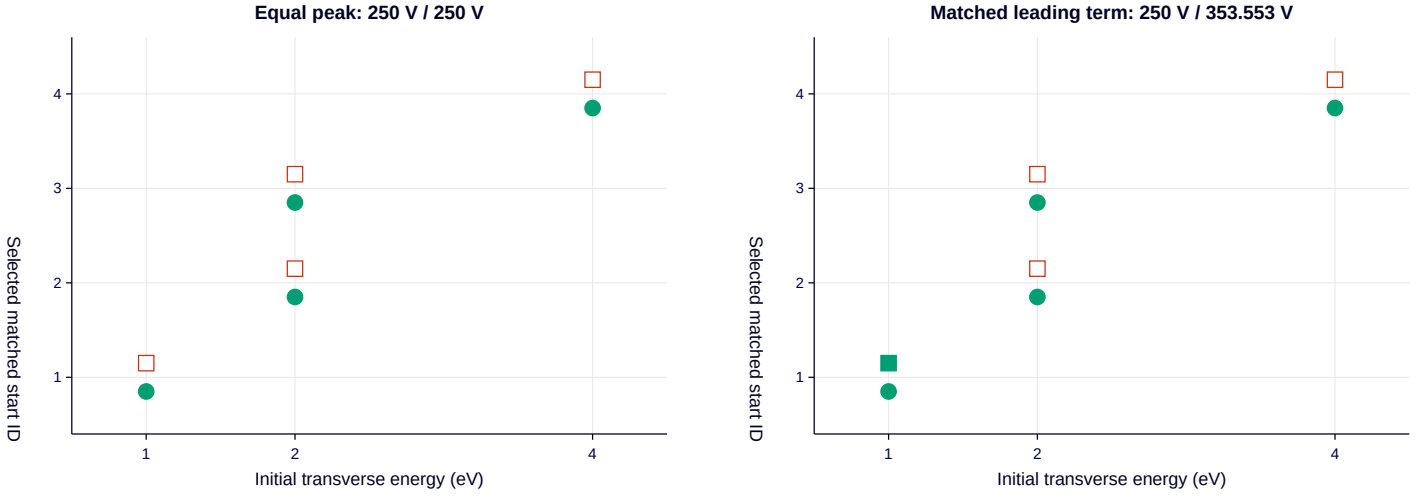
High-energy differences under separate voltage normalizations



Filled = retained to 1000 RF; open = escaped. Marker circles = rotating; squares = standing. Rows are identical launch states in both panels.

The alternate protocol matches the leading pseudopotential term at r=0.5 mm only; full multipole pseudopotentials need not match.